

Join us for our 3rd Annual International Team-Taught WATSU ASSISTANT TRAINING CERTIFICATION COURSE

January 22-26, 2017 at White Stone Institute, La Center, WA.

This exciting course will include extensive pool and land sessions covering:

- Guidelines for assisting
- Clarifying roles
- Refining Watsu skills, body mechanics & alignment
- Improving communication & listening skills
- Role playing how to guide students to success in the pool
- Role playing assisting students with different learning styles
- Role playing challenging class dynamics
- Creating a safe & positive learning environment
- Supporting land & pool classes

This course is offered only once each year and is limited to a maximum of 12 participants.

Don't miss this opportunity to learn with internationally known top Watsu instructors :
Peggy Schoedinger, Cameron West and Mary Seamster!!

Dates: Course begins 5 pm January 22; ends January 26 at 3pm

Cost: $1,200 (includes beds in shared rooms)

Deposit: non-refundable $350 due November 22, 2016.

Balance of Payment: due December 22, 2016

Application: Team Taught ATC Application form is attached

We're looking forward to having you with us in January!

Peggy Schoedinger ~ As a physiotherapist and leading teacher in the fields of Aquatic Therapy and Clinical Watsu, which she pioneered, Peggy has taught over 700 courses across North America, South America, Asia, Africa, Australia and Europe. Peggy seeks to bring joyful laughter and deep sensitivity for the heart to all her clients and students.

Mary Seamster ~ Mary's many years of exploring the physical and emotional delayering of the body has influenced her teaching both of Watsu and Amnion®. She has brought her passion for professionalism and ethical behavior both to the Ethics Committee and presently to WABR'S Educational Standards Committee.

Cameron West CMT, SEP ~ Cameron specializes in the training of practitioners in Physical and Somatic Therapy practices. Her Aquatic Integration and Watsu curriculum have been approved by NCBTMB and WABA for CEC. Cameron's passion is to assist students to deepen their connection between Eastern and Western practices.